ALADDIN'S CAVE
LIÉ STUDIO

THE ALWAYS BUSTLING STREET of Vognmagergade has acquired yet another spot worth pausing at. Jewellery and accessory brand Lié Studio's first flagship store exudes international craftsmanship with a space that brings Paris, Florence and Tokyo to Copenhagen. Founded in 2021 by twin sisters Amalie and Cecilie Moosgaard, the brand's new brick and mortar home has been created in collaboration with Danish architect Julius Nielsen, who is also behind Copenhagen menswear store Goods. A reflection of the duo's personal brand of minimalism, the restrained yet sumptuous interiors feature a custom made centrepiece that showcases exclusive leather goods and delicate jewellery pieces like a glossy treasure chest. Mixed types of wood and dark curtains from floor to ceiling add a cave-like mood, while vintage Moroccan rugs and well-known lamp designs from names such as Ingo Maurer and Le Corbusier add the icing on the considered Aladdin's cave cake. /

Lié Studio, Vognmagergade 9, Copenhagen K

TEXT METTE SKJØDT PHOTOGRAPHY HAMPUS BERNDTSON